

Curriculum Vitae

Jaume Serra Serra

Director

He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Andbank Group.

He holds a Degree in Economics and Business Studies from the University of Barcelona. He has a Diploma in Optics and Optometry from the Polytechnic University of Catalonia. In addition, he holds an inter-university MBA from UAB, UPC and UdA universities and a Master's degree in Political Analysis.

His professional career has developed in different sectors of the country's business activity, as Director or Chairman of different companies, such as ESSO Service Stations, Tage Transport S.A., Engas and FEDA. He is a founding member of the Andorran College of Economists and was Chairman of LECE in 2004. He has also taken part in Andorra's political life during his long professional career, as Minister of Economy in 1994, General Councillor on two occasions, and Andorran ambassador to the Holy See and Portugal.